Welcome to the application form for the AuthorAID travel grants.

Twelve (12) researchers from eligible countries will receive this grant, following a competitive selection process. Each of the successful grant recipients will receive USD (US Dollar) 1500 to present their research work at an academic conference.

The application deadline is 7 February 2016 (10 PM GMT). We intend to notify the grant recipients sometime between 15 February and 29 February 2016. Please keep this in mind when you apply. If you are going to depend entirely on this travel grant to decide whether to present at a conference, you might be able to make preparations only after we announce who the grant recipients are. Following that, transferring money to the recipients may take 2 to 3 weeks.

2. About This Application

This application form consists of several pages. The first few pages have information on the grant and eligibility. The remaining pages have questions.

1. Read everything on this form carefully, and follow the instructions closely. Give yourself enough time to complete the form.
2. Respond to all questions in English.
3. Be ready to complete the form in a single session, as partial applications cannot be saved. If you cannot complete the form in one session for any reason, you can revisit the form and start a new application.
4. Please do not use the "Back" and "Forward" buttons of your browser while you work on this form. Use only the "Previous" and "Next" buttons at the bottom of every page.

All the best!

3. Conditions and eligibility criteria

Please note the following conditions before you apply for this grant.

1. The travel grants are only for first-time presenters at an international conference. If you wish to apply, you should NOT have made a presentation at any international conference so far.
2. You should be a citizen of, living in, and working in an eligible country in the developing world. List of eligible countries: <http://www.authoraid.info/en/resources/details/1235/> (please copy and paste this link in your browser address bar). We do however make an exception for refugee academics. Please see the "points to note" section on the page with the list of eligible countries.
3. Your proposal should have already been accepted for an oral, poster, or some other kind of presentation at an international conference.
4. You should not have received any grant from AuthorAID in the past 2 years.
5. We will notify the successful grant recipients sometime between 15 February and 29 February 2016. Please make sure that you check your email regularly during this time. If you are selected as a grant recipient, you will need to accept the grant within 1 to 2 days of the notification. Otherwise, we may award the grant to another candidate.
6. If you receive any other grant while waiting for our decision, you must write to us (authoraid@inasp.info) with the details of that grant.
7. The grant is not transferable. If you are selected to receive the grant, you will not be allowed to nominate another person to receive it on your behalf for any reason.
8. If you are selected to receive the grant, you must immediately provide us evidence of your proposal having been accepted for a presentation at the conference you wish to attend (for example, an acceptance letter from the conference). Failure to do this will lead to withdrawal of the grant.
9. We will review applications only from those who wish to attend genuine conferences. We are wary of fake or questionable conferences, and you should be too. For more information, see <http://www.authoraid.info/en/news/details/817/> (please copy and paste this link in your browser address bar)
10. If you receive the grant, you should agree to do the following:
  - Acknowledge the grant during your presentation at the conference
  - Submit a report after the conference, describing what was gained and how the knowledge will be used;
  - Be willing to make a guest post about the conference on the AuthorAID blog;
  - Provide a report of expenses, with receipts attached, immediately after the conference; and
  - Be willing to participate in any impact assessment or case study after the conference.

8. Impact

We are especially interested in candidates with strong potential to build local capacity in research communication. Please remember this point while you answer the question below.

The box below will not show you the word count of your response, so we suggest you type your response in word processing software (e.g., MS Word, LibreOffice, OpenOffice), check the word count, and copy-paste your response.

After you copy-paste your response, make sure that it is formatted properly inside the text box. The text box accepts only plain text formatting.

Review or proofread your response inside the text box before continuing to the next page.

- * 32. Imagine that you receive the grant and attend the conference. Please describe how you will use this opportunity to create impact in your institution or region. Write about 200 to 300 words. We will reject applications with very long responses (>350 words), so please make sure you stick to the word limit (200 to 300 words).

9. Budget

Please state, in USD (US Dollars), the amount that you are seeking from AuthorAID and the amount you can provide by yourself (or from your institution) for each of the following items. Please note that AuthorAID will provide USD 1500 to each recipient, regardless of what is entered in the table below. The data in this table will be used to help us see whether you have compiled a budget that will indeed meet your needs.

If you cannot provide any funds, that's all right. Just enter 0 in the appropriate fields.

Enter only numbers in each field; do not enter any letters or symbols.
